

DANIELSON

Basketball Team to Play Taftville—
Main for New York by Parole Post.

Miss Olive Marguerite Milot, formerly of Danielson and Putnam, was a member of the class of nurses graduated from the training school of St. Francis hospital at Hartford this week. Miss Milot's home is in Putnam.

Tree Man at Hospital.

Thomas Burroughs of Deep River, the tree man that spends his summers in Danielson, is a patient at a hospital at Hartford, where a stone the size of a hen's egg has been removed from his chest in an operation from which he is satisfactorily recovering.

Juliette Breton, 2, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Breton, High street, died during Monday night. She was in St. James' cemetery Thursday afternoon.

Democrats in this section of Windham county are looking for appointments in the state highway department.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Jodoin recently entertained Mr. and Mrs. George Lacroix of Boston.

Misses Margaret and Helen Aylward were visitors in Providence Tuesday.

Held Watch Night Services.

The watch night services at the Baptist and Methodist churches brought out congregations that found the services especially interesting and helpful. The singing and prayer meeting this (Wednesday) morning will be at the Congregational church.

Never before has Christmas rush had business continued so heavy at the Danielson postoffice as has been the case this year. The clerks have been kept on the jump every minute of the time.

To Play Taftville.

The Danielson basketball team goes to Taftville this afternoon to play a holiday game with the fast aggregation from that town. Sidney Marland, William Marland, and Charles Marland will be included in the local lineup, it is expected.

Suffering from Broken Jaw.

John Murray, who received a broken jaw in a fight at Danville, is said to be in a serious condition. The accident did not happen in a Danville saloon, as stated, but in a tenement house in the village.

Officers of Firemen's Association.

Following are the newly elected officers of the Danielson Firemen's association: President, Chief A. Woodward; assistant, Chief James Gantland; secretary, Thomas A. Conwell; treasurer, W. F. Woodward; directors, John W. Munroe, Elmer H. Huse, company, No. 1, John Gordon, for Pioneer Hose company, No. 2, Arthur Larnier, for Pump and Ready Hose company, No. 3, George O. Thomas, for Battle Hook and Ladder company, Louis E. Kane, for Hose company, No. 4, C. A. Hamilton, Walter Chase, George O. Thomas, Louis E. Kane, and William Slater. The association has voted to give its annual concert and ball in January.

EGGS TO NEW YORK.

Patron on Rural Route to Send First Parcel Post Consignment.

This is the morning that the clerks at the postoffice will be busy with their experience with the parcels post business. They are ready for the test.

A patron on an R. F. D. route from the office has his plans all made for being the first man to send a parcels post package from Danielson.

This parcel, already prepared for shipment, contains two dozen of eggs and will be sent to New York, the cost being 18 cents. The consignor has complied with all the government's regulations and is ready to ship.

Residents of the metropolis who buy real fresh eggs in the country, pay the parcels post rate to New York, and still get the eggs at a lower cost than the same grades can be bought for in their local market.

"A Loyal Friend" is to be presented at the Orpheum theater Wednesday evening by the Associated Players. Don't miss it—adv.

PUTNAM

Elks Watch the Old Year Out and New Year In—Row on a Trolley Car—Improved Train Service.

Dr. S. B. Overlock is spending a vacation in Maine.

Dr. F. A. Morris is to be the visiting physician at the Day Kimball hospital during January.

There were 23 marriages in Putnam during the last month.

Elks Welcome 1913.

Members of Putnam lodge of Elks watched the old year out and the new year in at their rooms.

Letters to the Janice Spinning company and to Gentil Signorini are unclaimed at the Putnam postoffice.

Persons at the railroad station observed General Nelson A. Miles, en route from Massachusetts to New York to spend the holiday with relatives.

Mrs. P. M. Leclair of Southbridge has come home to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. F. J. Leclair. Mrs. Leclair is in impaired health.

Senator G. A. Hammond has been cutting wood at the Hammond farm reservation in the town of Hampton, and while there will be several hundred cords of wood he has a market for all of the selected grade he intends to produce.

Sorap on Trolley Car.

The police stated Tuesday that no report had been made to them of the alteration that occurred on an electric car while it was standing at Bugbee's corner, just after 1 o'clock Monday night. The story is that one man from the town of Thompson punched a Greek from Mechanicville and punched him good and plenty, causing considerable excitement among the passengers. It is denied that the Greek was stabbed, as first reported.

Married by Local Clergyman.

Couples recently married here were Henry C. Hill, 23, Lancaster, Mass., and Miss Lois Mandondell, 21, Sterling, Mass. Rev. J. R. Stubbett officiating.

Herbert Lund, 25, and Josephine Plante, 23, both of Farmington, Mass. Rev. George D. Stanley officiating.

George W. Smith, 25, Fitchburg, and Miss Mabel M. Holman, 18, Sterling, Mass. Rev. George D. Stanley officiating.

Harry Cowan, 23, Leicester, Mass., and Donna St. Martin, 18, of Spencer, Mass. Rev. George D. Stanley officiating.

Talk of Improved Train Service.

There are rumors about town of an improved train service from Putnam when the new time card goes into effect about January 12, but railroad officials here have no information on the matter. The story is that a new afternoon train is to be put on, or an old one restored, by the Connecticut river.

Arriving here from Boston at 3:25 p. m. will be a train immediately for points south. Danielson, Jewett City and Norwich. This train is also expected to make a return trip running through late afternoon to Worcester and Fitchburg, returning here at a late hour, probably about midnight, which arrangement would give a theater train from Worcester.

If this train is put on it certainly will be greatly appreciated. There is no south bound train out of Putnam now over the Norwich branch from 10:50 a. m. to 6 p. m., and all passengers to the south must depend on the trolleys, which offer a good but very slow service, especially for Norwich bound passengers.
